You hurt me so bad
I was building a palace in my mind
Just for you and me
I made you the centre of my world
Though you couldn't see
I thought we'd walk together
The road would run forever
I can follow no further
Til I get commitment from you
Whatchya gonna do?
Oh baby
What kind of answer is maybe?
Oh, oh-oh-oh
You hurt me so bad
Oh baby
Thought you were the last train to safety
Oh, oh-oh-oh
You hurt me so bad
In this world of indifference
I expected so much more from you
But the more that I listen
The less I believe is true
I've got understanding
Now my heart's commanding
I can follow no further
Til I get an answer from you
Whatchya gonna do?
Oh baby...
