Daddy, don't shy
And take your mama for a ride, right on
Right on

Daddy, don't hide
And take your mama for a ride, right on
Right on

Only you can
Take me in your arms and understand, right on
Right on

I've been contemplating how come I the way, yeaheah
Thinkin' about some clever line, something right to say
To break the ice and make you understand
That it's alright to fall in love
Right as the rain and the stars above!

Daddy, don't shy
And take your mama for a ride, right on
Right on

Daddy, don't hide
And take your mama for a ride, right on Ooh, right on

Only you
Can take me in your arms and understand, right on Aha, right on

The music's playin'

Now the lights are low
Sweet and sexy daddy
Make it sweet and slow

No need to rush
Get that just the same
Oh, love can be a symphony
I'm feelin' joy and ecstasy!

Daddy, don't shy
And take your mama for a ride, right on Oooh, right on

Daddy, don't hide
And take your mama for a ride, right on
Right on

Only you

Hey-ho
Ho
Hey-ho
Ho
Hey-ho

Daddy, don't shy
And take your mama for a ride, right on
Ah, right on

Baby, you care
And take your mama for a ride, right on
Ah, right on

Daddy, don't hide
Right on

Daddy, don't shy
And take your mama for a ride, right on
