Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer

I feel it coming
Coming for me

Shed my skin with an evil grin
No one knows where I've been without the dreamer

Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer

I hear a distant whisper
Whispering my name

Shed my sin with an evil grin
No one knows what it means to be the dreamer

Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer

Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer
Without the dreamer

Shed my sin with an evil grin
No one knows what it mean

Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer

Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer
