4 a.m. I'm on fire. Where am I to go?
Somehow I don't know...
Do you think you'd be in shock if I showed up on your step?

I tried like hell to get you back.
I'd fight like hell to pay you back.

But... You moved on.
You... You were gone.

I'd fight like hell to pay you back.

4 a.m. still on fire. Don't know where to go.
Somehow I don't know.
Do you think you'd be in shock if I showed up in your bed?

I tried like hell to get you back.
I'd fight like hell to pay you back.

So now we move on.
So now we move on.
So now we move on.
So now we move on...

You moved on.
