I feel like I could float away
Chasing something beautiful
Forget about time and space
'Cause I can't feel my head at all

You come
I'm numb and I love it but I hate it
'Cause you go
And I know I'm still intoxicated

I'm addicted to the pain
There's got to be a better way
To medicate, to medicate

I never thought I'd lose control
But it seems to happen every time
When the drugs are too powerful
Here come the lows, here come the highs

You come
I'm numb and I love it but I hate it
'Cause you go
And I know I'm still intoxicated

I'm addicted to the pain
There's got to be a better way
To medicate, to medicate

Twisting and turning
This spinning never ends

You come
I'm numb and I love it but I hate it
'Cause you go
And I know I'm still intoxicated

You come
I'm numb and I love it but I hate it
'Cause you go
And I know I'm still intoxicated

I'm addicted to the pain

There's got to be a better way
To medicate, to medicate
