The first day that I saw you
I thought you were so fine
I thought that you could be, that you could be the one
I took me week and weeks
To get the nerves to talk to you
I had such very high hopes
That you could be the one

You think that you are hot stuff
Think that you're pretty cool
But in my deck of cards now
You play the fool!
And when I look back on it
On all the wasted time
I spent just thinkin about you
And wishin you were mine

I had the fever but the fever is gone
I don't want you anymore
Tryin to shake you but you're holdin on
I don't want you anymore
Thought you're right but you're Mr. Wrong
I don't want you anymore
Sad but true I'm over you!
I don't want you anymore

I had such ver high hopes
That you could be the butter for my toast
Well in my mind
You were red hot
But it turned into a long shot!
Because I guess in time
Well I just changed my mind
Beacue I guess inside
Well I just changed my mind!

Started off but didn't last long
I don't want you anymore
Tryin to shake you but you're holdin on
I don't want you anymore
Thought you're right but you're Mr. Wrong
I don't want you anymore

Sad but true I've been over you!
I don't want you anymore

I don't want you, I don't want you anymore!
I don't want you, I don't want you anymore!
I don't want you, I don't want you anymore!
I don't want you, I don't want you anymore!
