A legend of old
a story forgotten
the memories of true love stolen from time

A darkened romance
try hard to remember
A doorway to the heart
beckons your mind

And now, a corner of night can lift the weight from you it's in your hands
if just you understand

A destiny lost a bond that's been broken
the memories of a time that slipped away

Just open your mind
try hard to remember
A doorway to the heart
you seek to find

Love can change the key you hold into a guided chance So tear a memory from your mind and make it so real

(chorus)
Blue Star above me,
your mystic shimmer tells of love,

I should know!
Whisper your secrets to soothe my doubt and calm my fear

Blue Star above me,
when shadows lengthen and the dark looms ever closer,
turn on your shine and hold me near.

(bridge)

When the comet pulls the bow, the stars begin their dance
The time when destiny and hope will give birth again!

(chorus 2)

Then if it's to be,
I'll find a glimmer of the life
I should know!
Only that moment,
can show me what I hold so dear

Until that moment
I'll find some comfort in the love within my slumber Turn on your charm and hold me near

(repeat chorus 1)
