"Open Your Eyes"

Visit "Open Your Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

There's something in the way you look at me
A part of you you don't want me to see
Distracted by the voices in your head
You keep it cold
You'll never know
You're numb
All I wanna do is set you free
But I can't seem to make you run to me
I can't hold back and I can't let go
You make me feel alive
Open your eyes
There's something in the way that you can't see
The part of you attached to part of me
The life you choose to live with eyes closed
You think it works
Cause it doesn't hurt
But it doesn't hurt cause you're numb
