She wears her hair up high
Stockings up to her thighs
You know she wanna go down
You know she's been around

While you sleep, she will creep out of the shadows like a leach
Hide your neck, lock the doors
Put up the cross cause she's a wrong-way girl
She's gonna rock your world

She climbs up to the glass
You watch her shake her ass
A succubus with a nice smile
You'll let her stay for a while

While you sleep, your soul she'll keep She'll make you wonder, make you weep
Beneath the covers of the world
The wicked game of the wrong-way girl
She's gonna rock your world

Don't be shy, you're all mine
I'll take what I want, I'll take my time
Nothing you can do
You're just a man, fool
Lie back, be sweet
Feel the heat
Cause I'm a wrong-way girl
I'm gonna rock your world
