You said you can better
And my style is lousy
And I wonder
Are you maybe scared of me?
You think you can rattle me
I'm still feeling cosy
Come on, come on
Just spit it at me

I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You can laugh at me so loud
You won't stop me
I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You just don't get what it's all about

You say I'm stubborn
Because I struggle
Your attacks
Are only sedative
'Cause if your efforts are that big
I really have to be good
I'm sorry now, I gotta go
Stop waistin' my time

I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You can laugh at me so loud
You won't stop me
I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You just don't get what it's all about

Did you really think
I'd give up easily
Just because you turned up your nose at me?
Did you think your judgement
Would mean something to me?
You gotta think of somethin' better
To get rid of me

I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You can laugh at me so loud
You won't stop me
I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You can laugh at me so loud
You won't stop me
I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You can laugh at me so loud
You won't stop me
I don't care about your doubts
I'll make it anyway
You just don't get what it's all...
You won't stop me
You won't stop me
