Can we talk now?
I need to tell you what's on my mind
I'm glad you picked up
I haven't been sleeping for a while
I tried to make up
I just need a little bit of your time
Your time

We don't even talk now
Why couldn't we work it out?
Why you treated me like I never existed
We used to be stronger
We could get through anything
How can you just run and let it go

Girl we should be
Making love in the moonlight till the sunset
We should be
Laying up on a cold night girl you know that, we should be
Talking about forever you and me together
I don't understand, this ain't us
Girl we should be in love
Girl we should be in love
Girl we should be in love
Girl we should be

Every time I wake up
I kind of see the picture about my bed
It makes me think of
When you got in that colleen left
And I remember
Everything I didn't want you said, you said

We don't even talk now
Why is this not working out?
Why treated me like I never existed
We used to be stronger
We could get through anything
How can you just run and let it go

Girl we should be
Making love in the moonlight till the sunset
We should be
Layin'™ up on a cold night
girl you know that, we should be
Talking 'bout forever you and me together
I don'™t understand, this aint us
Girl we should be in love
Girl we should be in love
Girl we should be in love
Girl we should be
