God is good!
Ghettos, America. U.S. to the izzay
Killa in the citywide sprizzay
Where there's sunshine in the shizzade
Church won't pull him out the pan like a cremate
For acting out their fears like a charade
Til they blackin out their tears like it's lights out
Bring em out the black like a lighthouse
And wave to em before they wiped out
Lifesave, threw em, hope they catch it
But it's so Titanic to be iced out
That's just scratching the surface like triple axels
Want to roll around that Bentley like crystal castles
In addition to the chain
That's just to take the attention from the pain
Or is it the mission of the man
Audubon Ballroom, Motel Lorraine
[Hook]
Now white people, they can't say nigga
So I gotta take it back
Now black people, we're not niggas
God made us better than that
No break, all wake
Little mayhem for your all-state [they? all state?]
Get a good ball great like a golf grade
Make the ball break
Just one swing, no putting, sidetrack
? always
Especially when you pass it
Martin, Baldwin, Audubon Ballroom

Turn the glass ceiling to a glass floor
Make a trampoline out of trapdoor
On that gasoline when I was back poor
Now they crafted out my dream underneath a tap floor
Backpack battle-cat underground rap lore
Anonymous but dominant what's a Mac to a hacker
In other words, lyrical Zuckerbergs
Pimp you may move a mouse but what's a rat to a cat star?
It's like a gig to a? storm

A rap black history
You can only see my past if you fast forward
[Hook]
Black Panthers, black anthems, black blues
With black answers for black stanzas: Langston
Hughes
Breaking rules, ain't it cool?
Took it old, and made it new
Black painters, musical black anger
Black mothers, beautiful black anchors
So lets hear it for 'em! Let's hear it for 'em!
Black America! Trap America! Rap America! 80s babies
From the era of family tearing up
But we just won big, can't be undid
Form a whole culture in just one kid
Miami dope boys open militants
Harlem Renaissance inside [deliverance?]
[Hook]
