there's only two ways out of here
you wait too late, you'll be trapped here forever
one is through the door
the others through me

sometimes living in a world like this it's pretty hard not to go insane not pretty if you don't comply pretty easy if you don't complain stand there like you don't feel pain no tears in the face of defeat pretend to the end that you don't fear change don't admit that your faith is weak don't say that you feel like dying lives hard and it feels like diamonds going homes just far too gone much too late to even feel like trying can't understand what I'm saying can't figure out what I'm implying if you feel you don't wanna be alive you feel just how I am I'm on the dark side and you can't come find him how when its light all around you yeah but its dark all inside him no winner when its me against me one of us just ain't gon survive my heart been broke for a while yours been the one keeping me alive

you wait too late, you'll be trapped here forever

this world is such a fucked up place my minds such a fucked up shape everything down here sucks maybe whats up there is great we all gotta go one day I just wanna cut to the chase

I wanna stop these nightmares I just wanna touch your face all you see is all my feats all I see is all my flaws all I hear is all my demons even through your applause all you see is all my flights well all I see is all my falls all you see is all my rights all I see is all my wrongs Lord keep telling me to fight gun on my table telling me to come on telling me to put him inside my hand then put it up right next to my dome Lord keep telling me to find a reason anything to keep me from squeezing simplest things yeah you really like summer you really like music, you really like reading love
I can't win if its me against me one of us ain't gon survive and my heart been broke for a while
yours been the one keeping me alive

you wait too late, you'll be trapped here forever
