(Feat. Unkle)

Hello darkness
Hello sunshine
Hello not at all
Hello all the time
Hello nowhere
Hello olbivioin
Hello goodbye

Hello darkness
Hello sunshine
Hello not at all
Hello all the time
Hello nowhere
Hello olbivioin
Hello goodbye

Hello darkness
You [echo]

All in together the weather is better then ever
I hope it never ends I hope it lasts forever
But when it does we can all pretend that it's been beter
than it's ever been [echo]
Lie to our selves like sky to a bell
And it's well and it's fine and it's fine if we fell
And you can refind the story line if you survive to atell
We are targets, hello darkness

Hello darkness
Hello sunshine
Hello not at all
Hello all the time
Hello nowhere
Hello olbivioin
Hello goodbye

You said everythings gunna be Fine [echo]
You said everythings gunna be Ok [echo]
You said just don't breathe the air

He just sits and waits for them to kick in the door
He once was a hero they don't love him no more
There was a blast
Everytime he hits the floor
His gift for not fighting an other mans war
And if, they can get they hands on the mask that he wore
On his face they can put somebody else in his place or restore
To state the illusion that it's safe, the faith
That being a slave is so great
As gas fill the room and rockses destroy everything around him
He stands to find himself surrounded
By thousands of soldiers that he once trained
And never miss they targets heartless hello darkness

Hello darkness
Hello not at all
Hello all the time
Hello nowhere
Hello olbivioin
Hello goodbye
Hello darkness

[Lupe: Talking]
Hello darkness
Hello sunshine
Hello not at all
Hello all the time
Hello nowhere
Hello olbivioin
Hello goodbye

Hey darkness
Hey sunshine
Hello not at all
Hello all the time
Hello nowhere
Hello olbivioin
Hello goodbye
