That's what I'm talking about
Lemme clean my glasses
Lemme wipe off my sneakers
Calm down shorty the alpha dude's up
They don't wanna touch 'em they alpha dude touch
Just when they think they getting slick I lift
Switch my altitude up
Drop a little jewelry down
Pick my valuables up lay my tomfoolery down
They like the way I converse
They alpha dude chucks
But these tailors here are tailor-made for me
The Geminis the Pros and the Sh-Shayla Gs
A four-man squad that'll play your league
Play you four on forty give you a hundred-point lead
Then we still pimp the game like it's Hunter's point please
Y-y-ya know me (ya know me)
You might see me down Stoney Island
Didn't you know? (echo)
I'm right behind ya mean
Who you think better than
I'm over ya heads like accedarin
Keep pumping me like a veteran
Part in confidence just that my jargon's number one in my conference
I take state raise stakes while joggin'
We take nationals no bargains
I'm barging through the door
I'm tired of knocking my knuckles are sore
It's nothing no more
FNF hot like TNT pop D and D not Disturbed we've injured the nerds
I told you vengeance this hurts
Time to get my grown woman on like bees and the birds
Me and my squad like peas in a pod
Haven't you heard (echo)
Y-y-ya know me (ya know me)
You might see me 'bout Stoney Island
While while hundred stallions

State Street grinding thatâ€™s who I am
Didnâ€™t you know (echo)
Youâ€™re now hip hoppinâ€™ with the better
I do it for the letters
Track tripping pimping
I do it for the cheddar
I chat different listen
I put it all together
Wonder how I remain cool
When Iâ€™m pedaling the fire
When niggas got littler than a sweater in the dryer
Homie I was a pusher of medicines for hire
So I can walk through the cookers without sweating my attire
Get through the drought without sweating my supplier
Without giving out my connect to the buyers
I hope I get it correct
Before the sun rises in the west
And god sends his Messiah
And then he wakes up the tired and is done
Y-y-ya know me (ya know me)
You might see me down Stoney Island
Lakeshore or State and While while wanderinâ€™
Didnâ€™t you know? (echo)
