Nick Javas

Hello sports fans, we're coming down to the nitty-gritty
Who will be representin the city
It's the moment in motivatin' your back into it days
Allow me to pass it off to Lupe (Get 'em!)

Lupe Fiasco

Welcome to Chi-town, lie down, nah, never that Packers and the Bears in the battle that never lasts
They go forever back to the days of Butkus and Nlinsky was simply on this planet just to run blitz

Nick Javas

Up against each other in this
The one hundred and eighty-second clash of titans, do the math
Bitter rivals for ten short of a century
NO tryin' to be friendly
Who's applying their better D

Lupe Fiasco

For Chicago, comin off of the end is a beast
Far as I know, Julius will pepper the beef

Nick Javas

Put the season on it but Jennings steadily beats the best of the DB's to get him his TD's 12 on the year like his quarterback wears but he wont be signin any autographs here
The cornerback Bears got their hands full button hook
If you aint got your guard up like when that man pulls

Lupe Fiasco

But the Packers better punt it out of bounds,
Or Hester's gonna turn them into clowns and jesters
When 22 be running through them hummin blues
And B-Jax standing south of the B- gaps
Why would you insist on trying to split Brian and Briggs applying the hits, denying them six So cue the violins for the losers amused by their egos their super bowl ring is being re-pulled

Nick Javas

And it was right there but now it lives in your nightmare
The pride of a Packer verse the flight of a Bear
The Lion's chair could only go to the king
See you next week, or see you in the spring

Lupe Fiasco

Dreams of rings that gleam upon the mantle are cancelled
If you plan to win it plan timid

Nick Javas

Quite the challenge
Who's gonna be trying their talents
In that one final fight in the palace
