(written by stuart moxham / hypocrite ep)

I was waiting at the station,
When your train came in,
Wasn't you I was tiptoeing for,
But you gave me a grin,

Felt my heart in my throat,
Felt my soul going out to you,
Could this be love at first sight?
I just didn't know.

I was waiting at the station,
When your train came in,
Wasn't you I was tiptoeing for,
But you gave me a grin,

Felt my heart in my throat,
Felt my soul going out to you,
Could this be love at first sight?
I just didn't know.

I didn't know,
I didn't know,
I didn't know,
I didn't know.

Don't you feel insecure,
All about your love for me?
There's nothing I adore,
More than a fake ugly day.
