big surprise, surprise
look into your mother's eyes i go where no man goes one particular roll in the hay it only takes one
to get it done

surprise!

afraid of the sheer volume i'm concentrated all
you can swallow me
or shoot me on the wall
afraid of failure
i come as i please
one drop is the name
of my disease
surprise!

i might be criminal minded but i don't wear no colors i got my time behind me i need a place to rest my eyes

surprise!

wunderkind of mine
tiny piece of a line
we come together
like roses on a vine
beat a few friends
or get beaten
aint no harmony
in the seed of men

surprise!
