"Leaves Me Cold"

Dream's deep heat, teasing my mind
Sleep peels sweet, stealing my sighs
She breathes deep when he's inside
Dream's deep heat poisons my mind

Inside me, there's a separate world
It's winning and I'm losing control
I'm coming but my eyes are closed
I'm coming but it leaves me cold

Night's bright lights dim in the day
Blind eyes smile at you today
I find, I'm falling away
My eyesight's never the same

Inside me, there's a separate girl
She's winning and I'm losing control
She coming but my eyes are closed
She's coming but I wake up and it leaves me cold

Inside me, there's a separate girl
She's winning and I'm losing control
She coming but my eyes are closed
She's coming but I wake up and it leaves me cold
