(ladykillers ep)

It's a lonely day in this house
We are?insecure? in this house
I'm so bored and jaded
I'm so tired of feeling blue
It's a sober day in this house
I can't seem to flow in this house
This is where I'm staying
I just wanna be with you
Please believe me when I say all is right it seems
I've packed them all and thrown them away
You know I need you
From the inside to the outside

Please believe me when I say all is right it seems
It's a different day in this house
Plums and oranges in this house

This is where I'm staying
This is where I want to be
