(single girl ep)

I can't seem to find the time to ponder,
I only think when I go for a wander,
Life is too short,
I feel that I'm caught,
I can't go on feeling like this.

Close my mind to boring stuff that you say,
I'm cold and numb to things that you look my way,
It's gone on too long,
I have to be strong,
My interest is gone long ago.

I can't bear it when you start to moan,
'cos night and day you're always on the phone,
I'm not fucked, my house is not my home,
Why can't you just leave me alone?

Life is too short,
I feel that I'm caught,
I can't go on feeling like this,

I can't bear it when you start to moan,
'cos night and day you're always on the phone,
I'm not fucked, my house is not my home,
Why can't you just leave me alone?
