Head hurts and your feet are cold
Another doctor that doesn't know
What's causing all your pain
Look can't say there's nothing wrong
Sent you home and told you be strong
Nothing strange on your x-rays

My brain won't stop, all around the clock
Can't bear to watch, another tear drop
Fallin' from your face

Nobody knows why
It's the reason of life
Hold on tight, it'll be alright
All we gotta do is pray

I wish I could take away your pain
Only if I could somehow somehow
Make it disappear, take away your fear
So you could smile everyday
I wish I could take away your pain
Only if I could somehow somehow
Make it disappear, take away your fear
So you could smile everyday

And I don't know , I promise you
I feel the pain too, cause when you hurt so do I
Can't see how it's meant to be
Never asked for my sympathy
But I'll stay right by your side

Until the time runs out
The sky falls down
And no more sound
And no one is around
If there's a will there's a way

Don't you cry, dry your eyes
Hold on tight, it'll be all right
All we gotta do is pray

I wish I could take away your pain
Only if I could somehow somehow
Make it disappear, take away your fear
So you could smile everyday
I wish I could take away your pain
Only if I could somehow somehow
Make it disappear, take away your fear
So you could smile everyday

Nobody knows what you're going through
What the hell is going on
Everyday you struggle with the pain
And there ain't a damn thing that they can change
Why don't god answer when I call

I'm never giving up, you are my love
Earned all my trust, do anything for us
I don't care what they say
Please just try to live your life
Hold on tight, it'll be all right
All we gotta do is pray

I wish I could take away your pain
Only if I could somehow somehow
Make it disappear, take away your fear
So you could smile everyday
I wish I could take away your pain
Only if I could somehow somehow
Make it disappear, take away your fear
So you could smile everyday
