In every heart there is regret
But they soon repair and don't forget
The deepest songs that life then fears
Through the pain, through the years

These are the thoughts that I conceal
Though my eyes can't hide the way I feel
There are no angels at my side
I am weak, I am tired

Because I miss you
You know it's true
I am broken
Do you miss me too?

Can we recapture
The life we knew?
I am broken
I am missing you

I am afraid of what I see
When my world is safe, what I dream
I do not shed a single tear
When I sleep, you are here

Because I miss you
You know it's true
I am broken
Do you miss me too?

Can we recapture
The life we knew?
I am broken
I am missing you
