My memory is long,
I recognise this voice when it speaks.
The night will carry on,
My mind won't let me sleep.

Don't compromise your soul,
Gotta help in every way that you can.
When inspiration falls
You'll always understand.

Shine on me,
Give me something I can cling to when my satellite
Falls down into the sea.
Shine on me,
Put a little bit of space dust in the air tonight
And shine your light on me.

I move along a track,
I pass through every gate that I reach.
My mind is blown away,
I listen to this speech.
Don't compromise your soul,
Gotta help in every way that you can.
When inspiration falls
You'll always understand.

Shine on me,
Give me something I can cling to when my satellite
Falls down into the sea.
Shine on me
Put a little bit of space dust in the air tonight
And shine your light on me.

Shine your light on me.
Space dust in the air tonight.
