Un ah
Un ah
Un ah
Un ah

I don't know why the world loves a fallen love affair
(I'm just a freak)
Who loves a one night bang, oh yeah
(A one night, all night)

After a long day of work all I want to do is play around
So I'm (Going out)
For a little bit of love and a whole lot of getting down
Do you believe me? You gotta believe me

I've been working, I've been all day working
And I need somebody
Said I need some, I need some love tonight, ooh oh
yeah
I need some love, I need some love tonight, un ah

People talk about my life and here's what they say (He's incomplete)
It's to bad that they feel that way
(You show is crazy)

But I don't listen to any of them not till five o' clock
Because the night is mine
And I don't want to change anything alright, but I got alright

I've been working
(I've been work work)
I've been all day working
(I gotta work work)

And I need somebody
(Gotta work work)
Said I need some, I need some love tonight, ooh oh
yeah
I need some love, I need some love tonight

So don't give me the forever love affair no don't you dare
(I like to freak)
To the one night beat, oh yeah
(Again and again, yeah yeah)

I work hard everyday so I do what I wanna do
That's why I'm stepping out step out
To find me somebody to do what I wanna do, woo woo

I've been working, I've been all day working
And I need somebody
Said I need some, I need some love tonight

I've been working, I've been all day working
And I need somebody
Said I need some, I need some love tonight, ooh oh
yeah

I've been working, I've been all day working
And I need somebody
Said I need some, I need some love tonight, ooh oh
yeah
