Don't know what this could be
Could it be love taking a hold on me, yeah
There's no pain, there's no doubt
For the first time there's nothing to cry about

She wears the stars in her eyes
And she looks and she sees into this heart of mine

I could survive after any lover
Love can go wrong one way or another
But this time I'm right
This time I know

This time I know that it's love 'til the end
Yesterday's over, I'm starting again
And this time I'm right
This time I know it's love

Ain't no love like she gives
And she told me that I'm the reason she lives
Comes to me all the time
I'm not just making her up in my mind, no way

I see the stars in her eyes
So I look and I know that she sees only mine

All of my life I've been waiting for this
This is the love that I don't wanna miss
'Cause, this time I'm right
This time I know

I'm a believer in love that's for real
I don't know much, but I know what I feel
This time I'm right
This time I know it's love

This is it, can't waste time
'Cause I know, this one is mine
Celebrate, can't slow down
It's for sure love's turning me around

Yeah, yeah

I could survive after any lover
Love could go wrong one way or another
But this time I'm right
This time I know

This time I know that it's love 'til the end
Yesterday's over, I'm starting again
And this time I'm right
This time I know

All of my life I've been waiting for this
This is the love that I don't wanna miss
'Cause, this time I'm right
This time I know

I'm a believer in love that's for real
I don't know much, but I know what I feel
And this time I'm right
This time I know it's love, love
