I'm doing fine, I'll be alright
If I can make it through yet another night

When I get this feeling coming over me
Then I ask myself exactly where I wanna be

Refrain:

I never said I loved you,
I never said I loved you,
The way you wantedt me to love
Though it's always you I'm thinking of
I never said I loved you,
I never said I loved you
All the things I meant to say
Now I see you walk away

It's another day now,
I didn't get much sleep
With you on my mind I silently weep
I got your shirt on, I have you on my mind
If I could only turn back time

But when I get this feeling coming over me
Then I ask myself, exactly where I want to be

Refrain:

I never said I loved you,
I never said I loved you,
The way you wantedt me to love
Though it's always you I'm thinking of
I never said I loved you,
I never said I loved you
All the things I meant to say
Now I see you walk away

When you're in love
You think it's all right
But when you are touched by love
Scars are in your eyes

When things go wrong and
You realize that you have got to move on
And start living your life on your own

Refrain:

I never said I loved you,
I never said I loved you,
The way you wantedt me to love
Though it's always you I'm thinking of
I never said I loved you,
I never said I loved you
All the things I meant to say
Now I see you walk away
