Marcellino, I have something to say
That cannot wait
Monday morning before the sun will shine
You'll find I'm really gone this time

Tell your mama
Tell you papa
Tell your sister and brothers too
Tell bambino I can't stay longer
There's so much I wanna do?

Marcellino, so goodbye
Maybe it's wrong, maybe it's right
Whatever may come
Oh, I know in the end I have lost a very best friend
So goodbye
Maybe it's wrong, maybe it's right
Whatever may come
Oh, I know in the end I have lost a very best friend

There is someone waiting for me back home
Where I belong
Yesterday the letter came at five
Telling me I need to share his life

Tell your mama
Tell you papa
Tell your sister and brothers too
Tell bambino I can't stay longer
There's so much I wanna do?

Marcellino, so goodbye
Maybe it's wrong, maybe it's right
Whatever may come
Oh, I know in the end I have lost a very best friend
So goodbye
Maybe it's wrong, maybe it's right
Whatever may come
Oh, I know in the end I have lost a very best friend
