I never liked the things you like
But you were my number one.

I love to talk - you hold your peace
But you're still my number one.
There's no one in the world who seems to understand
Whatever you do - whatever you say

You remain my number one.
So keep your head up in the sky
We're gonna be one forever

Your head up in the sky
Together for once and for all.
You may not be the kind of guy
To chat up any bird
But I love
I love
I love you So

Honey
you're my world.
So keep your head up in the sky

...
I loved to dance - you never dance
But you were my number one.
I like the sun - you go for rain
But you're still my number one.

There's no one in the world who seems to understand
The one that I need - the one that I want
Will remain my number one.
So keep your head up in the sky
So keep your head up in the sky
...
