You came in through the door like the Trojan Horse
You came onto the floor like the Trojan Horse You looked around and saw me but your eyes remained the same but soon you would show more like the Trojan Horse

Come on now, one two three, you're gonna dance with me
One two three four five, you say I'll be your wife
You move a little fast, now wait a little while
If you want to last, you show a little style
The gates are not yet opened, so the horse cannot come in
When you tell a happy story, the beginning you begin Come on now, one two three, you're gonna dance with
me
One two three four five, you say I'll be your wife

You got to take your time like the Trojan Horse Don't know what's on your mind like the Trojan Horse You came, you saw, you conquered but you move a little fast
You made your plan just fine like the Trojan Horse

Come on now, one two three, you're gonna dance with
me
One two three four five, you say I'll be your wife
You move a little fast, now wait a little while
If you want to last, you show a little style
The gates are not yet opened so the horse cannot
come in
When you tell a happy story, the beginning you begin Come on now, one two three, you're gonna dance with
me
One two three four five, you say I'll be your wife

Come on now, one two three, you're gonna dance with
me
One two three four five, you say I'll be your wife
You move a little fast, now wait a little while
If you want to last, you show a little style
