I got a picture up of you
Looking back at me
As if you knew
I am not the only one
Who's looking back
Try to see through you
I guess you want to change the world
You better start with who you are
It all shines through

Cause it don't mean anything

It's been so long to hear the truth
We're all jsut being used
I feel for you
Superman is there to fix it all
And make the lies just drift away
He'll make you pay

It's all over for you, threw it away
Cause we don't need anything
Anything at all

Well I guess it's on to more
To find a freak next door
Been done before

And you can try to save the world
But it's the ones like you
That don't come through

It's all over for you, threw it away
It's all over for you, threw it away
Cause we don't need anything, anything at all

We don't have to pay
We won't live this way
I can't live this way
I don't have to pay

It's all over for you, threw it away

It's all over for you, threw it away
It's all over for you, threw it away
Cause we don't need anything, anything at all
