"Retaken"

Tonight, it's time to switch off clocks,
tonight it's time to cover her mirror,
Ready to die, she jumped in the dark,
Ready to die, she jumped into obscurity.
Oh my princess, here we are together,
without you full of questions,
Mother nature gave her beauty,
Everything has been retaken.
And i guess, that she didn't like the fall,
Everything has been retaken.
Oh my princess, i'm asking why...
Now you're far,
You're gone to reach the sun.
