I can't stay over you
It seems we drive forever
but can never get away from here
Well just one more try

I'm guessing you are over me
I guess its bravery
Cause its black out the window while you sleep in the passenger seat its gone

When it's always on your mind
But you never speak of the name
Its in your blood and your face
And im certain its fame

So I'll stay out in the car
Cause the weather had gotten to me but its really these road signs and freeways that I can't take

This can't be how you live
It's like a
Ball and chain around your waist
Or a simple state

Your minds sick again
I'm tasting nothing before the words
"Please don't leave me"
And its dark in the winter
So your ideas start to sleep

Well your head is spinning like that carousel
And I know your a mess after three or four
But if you make it different
Then we'll make our way to the surface
And your favorite place

Where we sit and we breathe cause I

Know all the words
And I sing you everything
They're just thoughts
So go ahead and speak

So pick out what you like
And call on me when your on the way
You can spend the night
And hope to sleep all day

For me
It's just another week
Twenty eight
Was once how I dreamed
With your scent on my face
I can leave and have you for days

I still cant see you
The summer came
And we got lost
All of us

You are nothing without her
I still wont remember
Well your face
Features mixed to well
With this alcohol
So cover ourselves
In your fear
And stay to watch the moon
Disappear under these lights well the city, the city screamed at me

And as you breathe the words are better go
The sun is up and Taking back the shadows that covered this ground
And our feet, like a blanket of coal.
