Liar,
You never called.
But I'll be just fine, yeah I'm fine,
Sleep well.

This never made much sense to me
So I sleep alone.
Cause you are the same as I always remembered,
I'll always remember.
Where was all your money.
You said, where is all your money.

You like it more than ever,
And I can not stand this.
Because you like it more than ever.

It was just a god damn mistake.
Stay at home,
Because you're way to good at faking.
Love is too much,
I'll be just fine here.
Stay at home,
Because it's always the same.
Darling you fucked up.
I guess I love to spend all my time up in my own brain.
Because I can believe the words coming up out of your face.

Where was all your money.
You said, where is all your money.

You like it more than ever,
And I can not stand this.
Because you like it more than ever.

I guess they all knew.
Somebody draw the sun.
Those states made me distant.
Tell me it's always, better.

Well I can't believe you're still in the valley,
Wasting away.

I guess they got the best of me,
And got your all.
But I'll be just fine here.
