Tell me why I don't want to touch you now when I cry.
Close the door, I can't stand to see your eyes anymore.

No regret, don't forget what I gave.

I don't need you to explain, I don't need to wait in vain.

I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl unlike you.
I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl who cares too.
I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just wanna find me a girl to leave you.

Break it all, I don't care it's not a shame, our love is gone.

Take it all, I won't ever call your name, I'll carry on.

No regret, but don't forget what I gave.

I don't need you to explain, I don't need to wait in vain.

I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl unlike you.
I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl who cares too.
I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl to leave you.

How can I keep on loving when you won't get along?

You never thought you were the one for me.

I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl unlike you.
I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl who cares too.
I don't wanna kiss the bride, I just want to find me a girl to leave you.

I don't wanna kiss the bride.
