Hands down Im too proud for love but with eyes shut its you im thinking of but how we move from A to B it cant be up to me cuz you dont know who i was before you and basically to see a change in me i'd be losinq so i just ignore you yeah ooooh but your on my mind, my mind, my mind, my mind, my mind oohhh and maybe in time,in time, in time i'll tell you ima chorus

a litle bit, a little bit, a little bit in love with you i guess that Ima little bit, a little bit, a little bit in love with you!

i know you told me break their hearts but its you i wanna take apart and i would never ever be the first to say it but still i they know i-i,i,i

I would do it
push a button pull a triqger climb a mountain jump off a cliff cuz your my baby i love you- love you just a little bit

you would say it you would mean it we could do it it was you and I, not only I,I

i think ima a little bit- little bit a little bit in love with you but only if you're a little bit- little bit a little bit in la la la la love with me!

I hope they never find out what they already know,know,know as soon as its official we'll have to let it go,go,go so we dont confirm the fling keep avoidinq all the questions yu can teach me many things im just scared to learn a lesson

Rap-

the pressures on both hearts beat like a metronome both in sync like a justin song feels so right but its just soo wrong i wonda what my world bout when niqqas that i know tryna take my qirl out and her friends say i aint the one to go for she just jeaouls cuz you always get approached more oh well tell her fall back caught up in some more shit tell her call back tell her get a man that aint cheating on her ass with a girl that i know yeah tell her all that- that and as for you i think i know your the one the closest ive come im privately a..

a little bit-a little bit- a little bit in love with you i guess that im a little bit- a little bit
