After laughter comes tears.
After laughter comes tears.

When you're in love, you're happy.
When you're in his arms, you're gay.
But that doesn't last always,
So after your laughter comes tears.

After laughter comes tears.
Oh, after laughter comes tears.

And my friends all say don't try and hold it in.
But I can't let that guy know how I feel.
Maybe I'll hold it back for years.
But after your laughter, you will see those tears.

After laughter comes tears.
After laughter comes tears.

And I try to hide all my sorrow
But I can't hold it till tomorrow.
But maybe I'll hold it for years,
But after your laughter, a little bitty tear will fall down from my eyes.

After laughter comes tears.
After laughter comes tears.
Oh no, you will see those wet little tears.
After laughter comes tears.
After laughter comes tears.
Oh, oh, oh.
After laughter comes tears.
After laughter comes tears.
You.
After laughter comes tears.
After laughter comes tears.
