Hey girl where you gonna go
Why you running away
You're only falling further now
Slowly day by day

And it's the same old ball and chain
In your mind all the time
And we're dying every day
Never know what we'll find
And it's a shame that you don't know
How to just walk away
It's a shame that you don't know
Yourself

Still got the notion
That all your time is running out
Living in slow motion
Trying to find out what it's all about

You don't know
It's all in your head
Still drowning in it all
You don't know

That it's the same old ball and chain
In your mind all the time
And we're dying every day
Never know what we'll find
And it's a shame that you don't know
How to just walk away
It's a shame that you don't know
Yourself

And it's the same old ball and chain
In your mind all the time
And we're dying every day
Never know what we'll find
And it's a shame that you don't know
How to just walk away
It's a shame that you don't know
Yourself
