Give me some time to think things over
So many thoughts race through my mind
And I'm just lost in my confusion
So I get up again
All the words that you've said
I won't leave it all behind

Whenever I see your face
In front of me
I realize
And of the simple things
That you want from me
I try to hide
Is this love in your eyes forever
I wanna know
Is this love in your eyes

Promises made but never spoken
But pretending to feel
That the wounds never heal
Bleeding from the pain inside, yeah

Whenever I see your face
In front of me
I realize
And of the simple things
That you want from me
I try to hide
Is this love in your eyes forever
I wanna know
Is this love in your eyes

Forever

Should I say goodbye
Or will you make me stay
Lost and lonely hours
Can always find their way

Whenever I see your face
In front of me
I realize

And of the simple things
That you want from me
I try to hide
Is this love in your eyes forever
I wanna know
Is this love in your eyes

Is this love in your eyes forever
I wanna know
Is this love in your eyes forever
