"Even Higher"

Visit "Even Higher" on MotoLyrics.com

The loss you've known
The endless gray
The unread sign
You hideaway

Oh lie beside me where you'll know you're safe
And save the life you laid aside

Now see this cross
Upon my back
And through these eyes
You'll understand
That first you crawl
So take my hand
I'll lift you up
And let you stand
EVER HIGHER

The key you hold
Is there in view
The cage you lock
You still break through

Oh right before you lies a rolling wave
So let the water turn to wine

The eyes you've worn
Been blinding you
The path you've gone
Divides in two

Oh right before you there you'll know you're safe
The arms of life are open wide
