Feat. Nate Davis

Verse 1

It's been a minute
I thought I was over you
I even found someone new and I heard that You found somebody too
And then I saw ya
It all came back again
It's too hard to pretend that I don't want you
I can't let go no matter what I do

Chorus

I'm tryin' to fight it
Tired of hiding
You're enticing
And I want you boy (2x)

Verse 2

I know you feel it
I can see it in your eye
And boy you can't deny
That you want it the same way that I do
Got ya wondering
What it would be like
If we had one night together
Can't control myself around you

Chorus

Bridge:

Heart is racing
We're embracing
Boy I gotta slow this down before I fall for you
But you know that I want it
You know that I need it
Tell me what your feeling baby
Tell me what your thinking baby

Rap:

I'm thinking you make it hard for me to keep my composure

Especially on the floor when you're moving in closer and now
Would you feel this way if we were both sober?
Now don't leave, cuz then the moment is over and hell
Let's not think lets just live in the moment
I want your body on my bed but I don't want nothing on it
I want you, telling your friends when I touch it I own it and how I Kept you moaning till you left in the morning well Reality is that you got a man and I got a dame and if we keep playin' these games Somebody's getting hurt when you're screamin' my name
And that's the type of thinking to make my attitude change
Hey, let's forget it's taboo, for me to even try and go and holler at you
It's been a long time coming and I thought that you knew
When you sayin' that you want me I've been wantin' you too

Chorus
