(Aaron Gordon)

Well hello Mr DJ is there anything left to do
When the one you love finds another love and the both of them don't love you I suppose nothin' matters save your health with a decent appetite
And the Lord provides for the lonely ones on a very long winter's night.

I am alone tonight and yes I'm cryin'
I am alive and yet I'm dyin'
Without you love.

Play the song where the guitars play along with a haunting melody
It's the one we loved when we had a love and when you belonged to me
Are you there Mr DJ oh I know that you gotta run around So I'll let you go and do your show I'll be listenin' for my song.

I am alone tonight and yes I'm cryin'
I am alive and yet I'm dyin'
Without you love.

Deep in the night there's a light inside my window
I don't know where my love has gone to
I've got a heart and it's broken right in two now
What I'd give to make you mine one more time.

I am alone tonight and yes I'm cryin'
I am alive and yet I'm dyin'
Without you love.

Without you love...
