MY WORLD BEGINS AND ENDS WITH YOU

Writers Larry Keith, Steve Pippin

Copyright 1974

My world was no more than a dream

And waitin' on a dream can sure get lonely

Your love just fell right into place

And filled and empty space to overflowing, overflowing

My world begins with havin' a friend when I'm feeling blue

My world would end if ever I heard you say we were through

Just don't know what I'd do

'Cause my world begins and ends with you

Sometimes I tell little lies to see if your eyes are looking through me

But you know lying's not my style

I just need your smile coming to me

Reassuring me

My world begins with havin' a friend when I'm feeling

through

Just don't know what I'd do

'Cause my world begins and ends with you
