Could it be? Is it true?
Was it me? Was it you?
Because I thought you were a brother
But you turned out like my mother
And it's getting a drag

I was sure, I was wrong
But before very long
I found that I had kissed a mister
Just as pretty as my sister
And it's getting a drag

Bye bye, don't cry
My, my, have I been had
So sad, too bad
It's getting a drag

Who am I? Who are you?
What am I gonna do?
Most people make up when they break up
But we break up 'cos you make up
And it's getting a drag

Bye bye, don't cry
My, my have I been had
So sad, too bad
It's getting a drag

Could it be? Is it true?
Was it me? Was it you?
Because I thought you were a brother
But you turned out like my mother
And it's getting a drag

So sad, but it's getting a drag
So sad, but it's getting a drag
You let the cat out the bag
Heh, heh, heh, heh
Yeah, yeah, yeah
