Just a little time
won't you give us
just a little time
take tomorrow and borrow

Just a little more, baby not too much
but just a little more and the rest is sure to follow just a little more

We could have it all
we could touch the stars
we could make them shine
with just a little time

Just a little love, baby everyday just a little love darling for romace without heartache just a little love

We could have it all
maybe make them shine
with just a little time

Only time can show only time can tell if we take the time to know each each very well

We have could have it all
make them yours and mine

just a little time
