You know me, I know you, we're both going through,
Ooh strange changes

You fall in, you fall out, you care nothing about,
Ooh strange changes

Why are we holding on?
baby, you and I,
we know what's going on,
if we open our eyes

strange changes, strange changes, strange changes coming through
strange changes, strange changes, strange changes
do you feel it too?
coming through to you ooh

Is it you, is it me? what can it be

Why are we holding on?
baby, you and I,
we know what's going on,
if we open our eyes

darling it appears to be,
do you feel it too?

Nothing we can do, losing is hard to choose,
go with the flow,
you know it's only,

darling there appears to be,
strange changes, strange changes strange changes are you hearing me?
do you feel it, do you feel it too? strange changes calling through to you

Aaah, Aaah,
Aaah, Aaah,

and I'm calling through to you
strange changes, strange changes, strange changes calling through to you ooooooh
