And now the band is playing very slow and once again, I'll get my coat and go a lonely wallflower waiting by the wall without the will power to face the music at all

Please, won't somebody dance with me start up a romance with me just someone somewhere
someone who dare take a chance with me

I feel so silly in my patent shoes so many partners but one of them will choose a lonely wall flower feeling rather tired feeling undesired

Please, won't somebody dance with me
just someone somewhere
someone who dare take a chance with me

May I have the pleasure of this dance?

Doo doo doo doo doo
