(Allen Collins, Ronnie Van Zant)

intro:

Well, I used to wake the mornin'

Before the rooster crowed

Searchin' for soda bottles

To get myself some dough

Brought 'em down to the corner

Down to the country store

Cash 'em in, and give my money

To a man named Curtis Loew

(short music break)

Old Curt was a black man

With white curly hair

When he had a fifth of wine

He did not have a care

He used to own an old Dobro

Used to play it 'cross his knee

I'd give old Curt my money

He'd play all day for me

chorus:

Play me a song

Curtis Loew, Curtis Loew

Well, I got your drinkin' money

Tune up your Dobro

People said he was useless

Them people all were fools

'Cause Curtis Loew was the finest picker

To ever play the blues

He looked to be sixty

And maybe I was ten

Mama used to whoop me

But I'd go see him again

I'd clap my hands, stomp my feet

Try to stay in time

He'd play me a song or two

Then take another drink of wine

chorus

Yes, sir

(long music break)

On the day old Curtis died
Nobody came to pray
Ol' preacher said some words
And they chunked him in the clay
Well, he lived a lifetime
Playin' the black man's blues
And on the day he lost his life
That's all he had to lose

Play me a song
Curtis Loew, hey Curtis Loew
I wish that you was here so
Everyone would know
People said he was useless
Them people all were fools
'Cause Curtis you're the finest picker
To ever play the blues
