Hate you father for you have sinned Why did you Lord Let this life being? I'm not your savior. I'm not your son A forgotten boy, abandoned creation With these final words I pull the switch We turn to dust Dust to dust My name's like the kiss of death Then we embrace, we turn to dust With these final words I pull the switch We turn to dust. Dust to dust. My name's like the kiss of death Then we embrace, we turn to dust... Mother, Father anwer me You soul-less son, your thing that should not be A Brillant demon a Monster God You gave me life but took the soul away Ashes to ashes Dust to dust we belong dead We belong....
