Verse 1:

Mmmmmmmmmmm

Oh it hurts so bad.

It started out so perfect something God could only create.

A union of both me and you on this special day.

Never once did I take for granted that youve been hurt before.

So you treated me like a lady and even more.

So I cant understand why you brought storms into my life.

Tell me why you destroyed every part of me.

Now what once a beautiful lady that you showered with your love must live with a heart that bleeds.

I hope you never have to come this way again. You used to be my lover and my friend. So please dont take offense when I say what I have to say.

Cause if you died I wouldnt cry cause you never loved me any way.

Promises made and secrets told late nights spent in ecstasy, we made love in a bed of roses for the universe

to see. There was no holding back from each other, both of our minds were free.

henever we spent time apart, boy it seems like eternity

So I cant understand why you brought this pain into my life.. Oh tell me why.

I gave you a reason to live and you used my love in vain .. so go on

by yourself to survive this alone.. You know you cant come back home.

I hope you never have to come this way again. You did, you did. So please dont take offense when I say what I have to say.

If you died I wouldnt cry cause you never .. no way.
no way no way
How could this be
After all the love you said we shared you turned around and leave.
Boy you know you were my heart and soul but I cant be hurt. I gotta
let you go.
Together forever thats what we both said. I didnt know that life could be
so unfair.
Baby you did this to me.
You were my lover
So please dont take offense when I say what I have to say.
I hope you die, I hope you die
Cause you never loved me anyway.
I... you never never never never never never never never
You use to be my best friend. You can get struck by lighting, washed away by the sea, burned in a fire just dont bring it back to me.
Cause
Cause you never loved me anyway.
